

SKK is looking for experienced skating coach

Copenhagen skating club (SKK) is currently looking for an experienced skating coach to expand our coaching team. SKK is one of Denmark's largest skating clubs, located in the heart of Copenhagen in a new and modern skating rink with good facilities.

Some of our most important values are to create joy in skating and social communities.

About the job

- You are able to coach skaters at all levels - competition and championship skaters as well as Skate School and Funskate teams.
- You can organize both ice training and off ice training (strength, technique, fitness training and dance).
- You can take care of administrative tasks such as communication with skaters and parents, update of training plans, planning of meetings, camps and shows etc.
- You will participate in competitions with the skaters during the season.
- You have experience as a skating coach.
- Preferably you are educated as a coach. If you are from Denmark we are looking for minimum DIF2 coach level or similar.
- You can communicate with our skaters in Danish or English.
- You are warm and smiling and have good energy - even when something is difficult.
- You know that positive motivation is the best way to develop the skaters' skills.

What do we offer

We offer a good position in a well-organized skating club with 230 members at all levels. We have an international atmosphere with skaters and coaches from both Denmark and other countries. We value the joy of skating, and we have a focus on team spirit and social relations across levels and teams. We offer a competitive salary by agreement.
